November 9–10, 2006

Partners Gregory K. Brown and Kathleen Sheil Scheidt will speak at the the ESOP Association's Las Vegas Conference & Trade Show. Kathleen Sheil Scheidt will serve as a panelist in the session “Diversification - A detailed review of the diversification rules, issues, compliance strategies, and design opportunities to address gray areas in the requirements” on Thursday, November 9 at 9:00 a.m.; and Gregory K. Brown will serve as a panelist in the session “Legislative and Regulatory Update” on Friday, November 10 at 9:00 a.m.

The ESOP Association's Las Vegas Conference & Trade Show is the largest technical conference geared toward ESOPs, and the largest in The ESOP Association's portfolio of meetings, attracting over 1,100 attendees in 2005. Attendees are mid to upper level executives of ESOP companies, with ESOP professionals making up the second largest group of attendees. The two days are the most intense annual review of ESOP issues, led by top ESOP experts, of any program in America.
