

The 20th Annual ABS East Conference

Presented by the Information Management Network

September 21–23, 2014

Katten is pleased to sponsor the 20th Annual ABS East Conference, where structured finance professionals will focus on the revival and strengthening of the US securitization market.

Anna-Liza Harris, co-head of the Structured Finance and Securitization practice, will participate in the panel discussion “Key Accounting and Tax Developments and How They Will Affect the ABS Market” at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 21.

Partner Joseph Topolski will participate in the discussion “Auto ABS Sector Update: New Structures and Subprime Concerns” at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, September 22. Panelists will analyze the revolving trust, including investor and issuer opinions on the new structure; assess the risk profile of the newer structures; and assess underwriting standards and the likelihood of major defaults in the subprime sector.
