

2014 FOX Fall Forum

October 29–30, 2014

Adam Klein, head of the Chicago Corporate group and the nationwide Sports and Sports Facilities practice, will participate in the breakout session “Sports Team Ownership – Balancing the Rewards With the Responsibilities” at 3:45 p.m. on Wednesday, October 29. The panel will discuss the legal and financial issues potential sports franchise owners should consider when contemplating an investment, particularly from the point of view of a private family. Participants will also provide insight on some of the more important challenges and opportunities facing sports franchise, including the explosion of media rights, international expansion and league governance.
