Estate Planning in Uncertain Times: Tax and Non-Tax Considerations

The uncertainties of estate and income tax reform in turbulent economic times present estate planners with unique challenges in counseling clients. Despite these uncertainties, many tried and true estate planning techniques transcend these challenges and provide estate planners with valuable planning options to meet the needs of their clients. This program is designed to explore a sample of these planning options through a panel of esteemed practitioners and academics in the field and provide a framework for estate planning opportunities during these uncertain times.
