

20th Annual International Wealth Transfer Practice Law Conference: The Future of Private Wealth Planning – More Than Just Compliance?

Presented by the International Bar Association

March 2, 2015

Joshua S. Rubenstein, national head of the Trusts and Estates practice, will participate in the discussion “Tax, Succession and Family Planning for Same-Sex Couples – Has Marriage Solved Everything?” at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, March 2. The panel will discuss whether same-sex couples can now receive equal treatment when it comes to succession, tax planning and starting a family. The session will emphasize practical solutions for clients as they move across borders, particularly to where such marriages may not be recognized.
