

Paragraph IV Disputes Conference

Presented by American Conference Institute

April 27–28, 2015

Intellectual Property partners Mark Remus and Stephen Benson will participate in the Ninth Annual Paragraph IV Disputes Conference in New York City. At 9:30 a.m. (ET) on Tuesday, April 28, Mark Remus will participate in the session "Limelight v. Akamai: Assessing Its Impact on Method of Treatment Patents and Section viii Label Carve Outs." Mark will analyze the Supreme Court's ruling in Akamai, explore the relationship between inducement actions and divided and contributory infringement, and consider how new proposed FDA rulemaking on generic labeling may impact carve outs and skinny labeling.

At 3:00 p.m. (ET) on Tuesday, April 28, Stephen Benson will speak during "Assessing the True Measure of Damages in At-Risk Launch Scenario." He will review recent preliminary injunction determination in Hatch-Waxman matters, explore recent damages awards in an at-risk launch scenario, and consider how to determine the quantification of damages in an at-risk launch.
