

Private Equity Opportunities for US-China Businesses

November 27, 2012

Feng Xue, managing partner and chief representative of Katten's Shanghai office, moderated this panel discussion featuring Saul Rudo, a partner in Katten's Tax Planning Practice; Thomas Manning, former CEO of Cerberus Asia and a lecturer in law at the University of Chicago; Andrew Rice, senior vice president of international business at The Jordan Company; and Aihong Yu, VP counsel and general counsel – Asia Pacific for ADP Dealer Services.

The conversation covered the following topics:

- The role of US private equity investors in US-China transactions – where and how to make money
- Common pitfalls – differences in culture, business and law
- Additional costs of doing business in China
- Best practices for a successful investment
