

Heads I Win, Tails You Lose: Advising the Wealthy in Times of Protracted and Unprecedented Political, Economic, Cultural and Scientific Change

March 18, 2016

Trusts and Estates practice head Joshua Rubenstein will present "Heads I Win, Tails You Lose: Advising the Wealthy in Times of Protracted and Unprecedented Political, Economic, Cultural and Scientific Change" to the Southern Nevada Estate Planning Council on Friday, March 18 at 12:00 p.m. Josh will provide observations on how difficult it has become to do estate planning and wealth preservation for clients when the rules change constantly. The presentation will cover tax changes here and abroad (as they impact one another), enforcement changes leading to FATCA, changes in access to information, changes in the nature of families, and changes in the frequency of intra-family litigation. He also will review what changes are likely in transition, which will return to "normal" and which changes are here to stay—and how best to advise in the meantime.
