

Terence Ross Joining Katten Highlighted in Law360

October 19, 2016

Intellectual Property partner Terence Ross was profiled in Law360 on how he was inspired by Katten's leadership and brand when deciding to join the firm. Terry stated, "Katten's got a fantastic brand in the intellectual property field and that makes it real easy to develop new clients." He noted that he's known Katten's chairman Roger Fury for 30 years, adding, "I think he'll be a fantastic new leader and take the firm to new heights, and I wanted to be part of that." Terry's knowledge and experience puts him at the forefront of the industry, particularly with his influential treatise on damages called "Intellectual Property Law: Damage and Remedies" and his contributions to Oxford University Press' forthcoming handbook of intellectual property law.
