

Kimberly Smith Comments on Health Care Deal Making in the Wake of Trump Victory

November 18, 2016

Kimberly Smith, co-chair of Katten's Private Equity practice, is quoted in a Private Healthcare Investor article on the impact of President-elect Trump's uncertain stance on the Affordable Care Act. "We have not seen any buyers backing out of pending healthcare deals due to the regulatory and reimbursement uncertainties created by the upcoming Trump presidency," she said, adding that investors "are scrambling to figure out the more specific impact of a Trump presidency, both with respect to their existing portfolio and longer term investment strategies."
