

Joshua Rubenstein Quoted in The American Lawyer on the Wait for Trump's Estate Tax Plan

December 21, 2016

Joshua Rubenstein, Private Wealth practice head and national chair of the Private Client Services group, commented on anticipation for President-elect Donald Trump's estate tax plan. While on the campaign trail, Trump had vowed to eliminate the estate taxes. Josh stated, "I have certainly gotten a ton of calls to ask, 'What does this mean?' The most important thing for clients to do is not run off half-cocked and do something foolish. . . . I happen to think the odds of repealing the estate tax are extremely small. We've had an estate tax for 100 years." He added, "When push comes to shove, I suspect it will be more important to drop the corporate income tax."
