

Katten Represents Gamut Capital Management in $1 Billion Private Equity Fund

January 4, 2017

Katten advised Gamut Capital Management, L.P., a New York-based middle market private equity firm, in the formation and related fundraising of Gamut Investment Fund I (and affiliates) (the "Fund"), which announced its final closing at $1 billion, exceeding the Fund's $750 million target. The full release is available here.

The Katten team was led by Corporate partner Noah Leichtling and associate Debasha Cox, and also included Corporate partner Walter Weinberg, Tax partners Jill Darrow and Saul Rudo, and Financial Services partner Christian Hennion.

Katten is a global leader in providing sophisticated counsel to private investment fund sponsors and select institutional investors with respect to all major alternative investment strategies.
