

Saul Rudo Comments on Tax Reform in the Washington Examiner

August 8, 2017

Saul Rudo, national head of Katten's Tax Planning practice, was quoted by the Washington Examiner on congressional tax reform efforts and how they are affected by failed efforts to repeal Obamacare. Saul noted that repealing Obamacare taxes as part of tax (not health care) reform may make it difficult for Congress to achieve tax reform goals without adding to the deficit. He stated, "It kind of creates a hole or a negative in trying to have a revenue-neutral tax reform bill." The article also was published by Newsmax. ("Obamacare Repeal Failure Gives Republicans a Tax Headache," August 7, 2017)
