

Amanda Segal Featured in Law360

January 4, 2018

Amanda Segal, head of the firm's Distressed Debt and Claims Trading practice, was profiled in Law360 on her joining Katten. When asked about her decision to change firms, Amanda stated, "Katten's financial services team is renowned for its depth and breadth of expertise and I'm looking forward to the opportunity to grow a practice that provides value to so many of the firm's clients." The article notes that her role leading a truly multidisciplinary team, which includes derivatives, structured products, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, private equity and tax attorneys, allows Katten to provide clients with "the strongest support" throughout the distressed debt cycle.
