Katten Represents IMF Bentham in $57 Million Portfolio Sale

February 8, 2018

Katten represented IMF Bentham Ltd, an international litigation funding company, in the sale of the majority of its US investment portfolio to Bentham IMF Fund 1 LLC for $57.4 million. This transaction should serve to bolster the fund's investment portfolio while reducing risk and converting assets to cash for IMF Bentham. The fund was announced last year as a special purpose vehicle funded in part by Fortress Credit Advisors LLC. The Katten team featured Allison Yacker, New York Financial Services co-chair, and Rong Zhao, an associate in the firm's Chicago office.

With focused industry experience and in-depth product knowledge, Katten offers all of our fund and investment management clients pragmatic solutions that enable efficient operations and allow for future growth.
