Mark Solomon Comments on Navigating Uncertain Markets for PE Clients

March 23, 2018

Mark Solomon, Dallas office Managing Partner, was quoted in a Law360 article on the challenges facing the private equity market that fund managers and attorneys will need to help clients navigate. Mark suggested that attorneys watch closely for changes coming out the White House. He stated, "Geopolitical risk seems to vary by the day." A current example is how impending steel and aluminum tariffs that President Donald Trump is spearheading could significantly affect portfolio company investments.
