

Katten Represents Periscope Equity in Its Investment in Integrated Behavioral Health

May 15, 2018

Katten advised Periscope Equity LLC, a Chicago-based private equity firm focused on buyouts of technology-enabled business services companies, in its investment in Integrated Behavioral Health, Inc., a comprehensive behavioral health and employee engagement provider. The full release is available here.

The Katten team was led by Transactional Tax Planning chair Saul Rudo and featured Thomas Lamprecht, Corporate partner, and John Huang, Commercial Finance partner, as well as associates Cyrus Abbassi and Mary Harmon. Our multidisciplinary approach included structuring, financing and consummation of the acquisition.
