

Katten Represents Ownership Group in Successful Bid for NHL Seattle Team

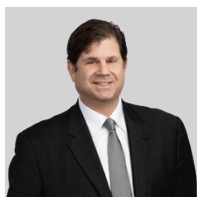

December 18, 2018

Adam Klein, head of the Chicago Corporate group and the nationwide Sports and Sports Facilities practice, represented a buyer group led by TPG Capital founder David Bonderman in its recent successful bid to acquire a National Hockey League expansion team. The yet-to-be-named team is the 32nd franchise in the league and is scheduled to begin playing in Seattle in the 2021/22 NHL season. The team will play in renovated KeyArena, which is the former home of the Seattle Supersonics NBA team.
