

Katten Lawyers Recognized by The National Law Review for Authoring the 2019 "Article of the Year"

December 12, 2019

Financial Markets and Funds partners John Ahern, Carolyn Jackson, Nathaniel Lalone and Neil Robson were recently honored as "Go To Thought Leaders" by The National Law Review (NLR) for writing "FCA Announces Launch of Green FinTech Challenge," which won "Article of the Year." The NLR wrote, "[T]his article not only announced the UK Financial Conduct Authority's (FCA) "Green FinTech Challenge" launch, but it also took the extra steps of outlining key criteria that should be included in successful grant applications, examples of green solutions the UK FCA was looking for, and key deadlines. Even in niche areas like UK Green FinTech, this article received over 80,000 page views and provided NLR readers with actionable to-do's and insight into the FCA's goals." ("The 2019 National Law Review "Go-To Thought Leader" Awards Announced Honoring Excellence in Legal Thought Leadership," December 5, 2019)
