

Katten Team Successfully Obtains Acquittal for Doctor on Health Care Fraud Charges

December 1, 2020

Katten Dallas Litigation partner Brandon McCarthy and associate Rachel Riley, with assistance from Washington, DC associate Mary Fleming, successfully represented Dr. Gregory Auzenne, a Mississippi doctor who was found not guilty on seven of eight counts of alleged health care and wire fraud. The jury was unable to reach a verdict on the eighth count. In the era of COVID-19, the acquittal came swiftly at the end of a two-week long trial.
