

Charlotte Business Journal Selects Karen Nelson for Women in Business Achievement Award

February 11, 2021

Managing partner of the Charlotte office Karen Nelson was selected by the Charlotte Business Journal to receive the 2021 Women in Business Achievement Award, recognizing her among the female leaders in the Charlotte region who are making an impact in their careers and communities.

Charlotte Business Journal's Women in Business Achievement Awards program is in its twenty-fifth year and highlights 25 women from every industry and profession who have made a difference in their workplace and are creating opportunities for other women. The honorees were selected from a highly competitive group of nominations and chosen based off their career accomplishments and community involvements.

Karen was recently appointed as the first female managing partner to lead Katten's Charlotte office. She has also been recognized as a leading attorney by the Charlotte Business Journal and North Carolina Lawyers Weekly. Her practice focuses on the origination and restructuring of debt secured by real estate assets, and she advises clients on a range of commercial real estate finance matters. Karen has represented some of the largest commercial and investment banks, funds, insurance companies and real estate investment trusts in the United States.

Karen is the co-head of Katten's Women Leadership Forum (WLF) in Charlotte, where she has helped develop mentoring and networking opportunities for women. She is also a LEED Accredited Professional (LEED AP) and a member of Charlotte's Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), an organization that provides educational opportunities and business for women leaders in the real estate industry in Charlotte.
