

Citywealth Names Joshua Rubenstein and Bonnie Chmil on 'Top 100 International Private Client Litigation Lawyers' List

April 3, 2023

Citywealth has named Private Wealth partners Joshua Rubenstein, national chair of the Private Wealth Department, and Bonnie Lynn Chmil to its 2023 list of "The Top 100 International Private Client Litigation Lawyers." The list features the "need-to-know" litigation attorneys in the wealth management and private client industries.

Josh offers clients integrated planning, administration and litigation counseling for individuals, their estates and their businesses, all of it designed to preserve wealth over generations. When asked why a client should select him as their litigator, Josh said, in part, "As we routinely do with our matters, we think outside the box and have an innate ability to create sophisticated solutions and that is especially important and valuable when handling cases that cannot be easily resolved."

Bonnie advises high-net-worth individuals and families as well as fiduciary trust companies and banks and other companies that offer trust and private wealth services in high-stakes litigation. Asked why a client should select her as a litigator, Bonnie said, "In fiduciary and private client litigation, we do our best to present quick and practical favorable resolutions to disputes. Doing so not only serves our clients well but also enhances Katten's reputation as having a successful international private wealth practice."
