

Crain's Chicago Business Named Gil Soffer to the 2024 'Who's Who in Chicago Business' List

January 16, 2024

Crain's Chicago Business featured Chair-Elect, Chicago Managing Partner and Litigation Co-Chair Gil Soffer to its "Who's Who in Chicago Business" list. Regarded as a "comprehensive field guide to power in Chicago," the list features names from a broad range of industries considered to be "leaders making a difference in every corner of Chicago's business, civic, cultural and philanthropic worlds."

Looking back at the pandemic, Gil noted that "The pandemic has proven how resilient, flexible and adaptable we are. In dealing with the uncertainty of the pandemic, we quickly transitioned to remote work while balancing family obligations and continuing to deliver the highest level of client service. After facing challenges over the past few years, it has also been energizing to reconnect with people, build new relationships and see more colleagues on-site as our hybrid landscape evolves. I look forward to more opportunities for in-person gatherings and collaboration in the years ahead."
