

American Lawyer Quotes Noah Heller on Katten's Upward Trajectory

April 23, 2024

In an article covering revenue growth and performance of Chicago-founded law firms within the Am Law 100 ranking, the American Lawyer quoted Katten CEO Noah Heller. Katten's revenue and profits per equity partner (PEP) increased, which resulted in a bump up in the Am Law 100 rankings. Katten moved up a spot to number 66 in the rankings after realizing a 5.22 percent revenue growth and a 9.2 percent increase in PEP.

Noah said Katten's attorneys were able "to adjust to evolving market dynamics and do outstanding work," adding "Last year, as in years prior, our attorneys collaborated throughout the firm and worldwide, leveraging resources, strategy and skill to deliver customized solutions for our clients."

A full-service firm with approximately 700 attorneys, Katten has locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Core areas of practice include corporate, financial markets and funds, insolvency and restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, real estate, structured finance and securitization, transactional tax planning, private credit and private wealth. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.

"Most Big Chicago Law Firms Grew in 2023, but Several Not as Fast as Am Law 100," The American Lawyer, April 22, 2024
