

Julie L. Gottshall Elected as a Fellow of The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

July 17, 2024

Partner and Chair of Katten's Employment Litigation and Counseling practice Julie Gottshall has been named a Fellow of The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers (CLEL). CLEL is a nonprofit professional association honoring the leading lawyers, academicians and scholars nationwide in the practice of employment law.

Julie's selection represents the highest recognition from industry colleagues of her outstanding performance in the field and her exemplary demonstration of excellence, integrity and dedication.

The installation of new CLEL Fellows will take place on November 16 in New York during the annual induction dinner, traditionally held parallel to the American Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law Section's Continuing Legal Education Conference.
