

Business Journals Name Three Katten Partners to 2024 Women of Influence Lists

October 7, 2024

Business Journals has honored three Katten partners on its 2024 Women of Influence lists. The Women of Influence program recognizes women from a wide range of industries who make a significant impact professionally and personally in their respective communities. New York Managing Partner Wendy Cohen from the Financial Markets and Funds practice was featured on the New York Business Journal list. Chicago Managing Partner Jennifer Wolfe, who is also a Private Credit Partner, appeared on the Chicago Business Journal list. Private Credit Partner Shana Ramirez was recognized by L.A. Business First.

This year's Women of Influence selectees were chosen from a field of nominees submitted for consideration to the Business Journal publication in their respective cities. A team of editors and reporters from each publication and its parent company, American City Business Journals, reviewed the nominations and selected this year's honorees for recognition.
