

Susan Light Shares Thoughts on the Upcoming Presidential Election With MoneyWeek

November 4, 2024

Financial Markets and Funds Partner Susan Light spoke with MoneyWeek on possible financial industry changes based on either a Trump or Harris administration. Sue noted that if Donald Trump is elected, he is likely to repeal many of the rules passed over the last four years and follow the concepts in the Heritage Foundation's "Project 2025" report. On the other hand, Kamala Harris is likely to keep appointing regulators, such as the current Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Chair Gary Gensler, who has "led one of the most aggressive rule-making agendas in decades."
