

Nathan Smith Recognized by the International Trademark Association as a Rising Star

April 3, 2025

London Intellectual Property Partner Nathan Smith was honored as a Rising Star by the International Trademark Association (INTA), a global community of nearly 37,000 professionals from more than 6,700 organizations that is dedicated to supporting trademarks and related intellectual property (IP) through its advocacy work, educational programs and legal resources.

Selections for the Rising Star program are made by INTA committee chairs, vice chairs and staff liaisons who identify honorees within their committees and networks. Criteria include a demonstrated commitment to the IP profession or INTA by exemplifying substantive and dynamic skills through achievements as a speaker, author, project team contributor or committee contributor. Rising Stars will be celebrated at the INTA's 2025 Annual Meeting in San Diego on Saturday, May 17.
