

Katten Counsels Heartisan Foods in Sale to The Gellert Global Group

April 29, 2025

A Katten team served as legal counsel to Heartisan Foods, an omni-channel market leader in smoked, flavored, and kosher all-natural cheese, in its sale to The Gellert Global Group, a global leader in specialty food importation and the parent company of Atalanta Corporation, one of North America's largest privately held food importers. The transaction represented a significant exit for Firm client Ronin Equity Partners, an operationally-focused buyout group.

The Katten team included Mergers and Acquisitions Partner Tom Lamprecht; Private Credit Partner John Huang; Corporate Partner Michelle Gyves and Associates Alex Haddad, Natasha Spann and Quincy Wolff; Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Partner Andrew Skowronski and Associate Peter Dalmasy; Environmental Partner Nancy Rich; and Transactional Tax Planning Partner Todd Hatcher and Associate James Blasland.
