

Five Katten Partners Named as Members of Law360 2026 Editorial Boards

April 10, 2026

On April 3, Law360 announced that five Katten partners were selected to serve on its editorial boards for benefits, California, capital markets, New York and North Carolina. The editorial advisory board members provide feedback on Law360's coverage and insight on shaping future coverage plans.

Managing Partner of Katten's New York Office, Wendy Cohen, has joined the New York Editorial Advisory Board. Wendy has advised clients for three decades on the structuring and operation of private investment funds, bringing a deep understanding of the asset management industry's business and regulatory landscape. Clients rely on her for counsel on domestic and offshore offering requirements, futures regulation, investment adviser rules and cutting-edge issues including cryptocurrencies and cybersecurity.

Managing Partner of Katten's California Offices Christine Noelle Fitzgerald has joined the California Editorial Advisory Board. Christy brings deep experience in real estate finance, including syndicated, securitized, mezzanine and construction lending, as well as workouts, foreclosures and loan restructurings. She was recently profiled among the 2026 Banking and Finance Visionaries in the Los Angeles Times.

Partner and Chair of Commercial Litigation Rebecca Lindahl has been named to the North Carolina Editorial Advisory Board. Becky is a proven, first-chair trial attorney focused on high-stakes business disputes and class action matters. She is experienced in bench and jury trials, appellate arguments and electronic discovery challenges.

Partner, Chair of Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation and Deputy General Counsel Kate Ulrich Saracene has been named to the Benefits Editorial Advisory Board. Kate is nationally recognized for her work in health and welfare employee benefit plans, third-party benefits administration and multiple employer health plan arrangements. A former human resources and labor relations professional at Xerox, she brings unique insight to the intersection of benefits, employment law, ERISA and tax.

Partner and Co-Chair of Capital Markets Mark Wood has been named to the Capital Markets Editorial Advisory Board. Mark represents public companies and investment banks in IPOs and other public offerings of equity and debt securities, as well as mergers and acquisitions. He is also a leading advisor on private investment in public equity (PIPE) transactions and cross-border capital raising matters.
