Katten Advises Keypath Education on the Sale of Its North American Operations to Risepoint

August 21, 2026

Katten advised Keypath Education, a leading global EdTech company that partners with universities to deliver market-led, online higher education programs, in connection with the sale of its North American operations to Risepoint, a global higher education technology and services company that partners with universities to launch and scale affordable, workforce-relevant online programs. The transaction adds more than 20 university partnerships to the Risepoint platform and brings one of the largest clinical placement networks into its portfolio. The deal is significant because it pairs Risepoint's scale in online education with Keypath's knowledge in healthcare and clinical placement infrastructure.

The Katten team advising Keypath Education was led by Partner and Chair of Transactional Tax Planning and Co-Chair for Family Offices practice Saul E. Rudo, along with Mergers and Acquisitions Partner Thomas F. Lamprecht. The team included Transactional Tax Planning Associate Jeffrey Ng, Intellectual Property Partner Sean S. Wooden, Corporate Associate Astoneia O. Moss, Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Partner Meredith O'Leary, Labor Partner Shelly Gyves and Corporate Paralegals Eileen Regan and Lisa Pena. Together, the team guided the client across the corporate, tax, intellectual property and benefits of the sale.
