

Partner M. David Weisman Interviewed for Law360 Q&A

May 3, 2013

M. David Weisman, a partner in the White Collar Defense, Internal Investigations and Compliance practice, was profiled in a Law360 Q&A. He discussed his most challenging case as a former federal prosecutor in the US Attorney's Office, the need for clearer guidance from the federal government in regulatory areas that may lead to criminal prosecution, and having a "Plan B" readily available. Mr. Weisman also commented on the importance of United States v. Caronia in the constantly evolving health care regulatory landscape, calling the case "a good example of the government's aggressive pursuit of its regulatory function through criminal prosecution creating less clarity for market participants. Especially in highly regulated areas such as health care, having greater clarity is always preferable." ("Q&A with Katten's David Weisman," April 25, 2013)
