Katten Designated US Law Firm of the Year by Acquisition International

February 12, 2013

Katten has been named US Law Firm of the Year in the Acquisition International Hedge Fund Awards 2013. The awards, based on client nominations, recognize leaders in their respective fields in the hedge fund industry. Henry Bregstein, head of the Financial Services Practice, explains what distinguishes the firm from competitors: “We fully appreciate the need to provide counsel quickly and efficiently in light of the time-sensitive and market-driven nature of the issues our clients face, and assist in finding solutions that are both commercially practical and compliant with applicable law and regulations.” Click here to view the full list of awards.
