Katten Named US Real Estate Law Firm of the Year in 2013 International Fund Awards

June 11, 2013

Katten has been named US Real Estate Law Firm of the Year in the International Fund Awards 2013. Sponsored by AI Global Media and Acquisition International Magazine, the awards celebrate excellence within private equity, venture capital, infrastructure and real estate, recognizing not only fund performance, but also the firms and people behind the scenes who are successfully forming, managing and advising on funds in the current market. Award winners are nominated by their clients, their peers and other business professionals, and selected based on outstanding work completed over the past 12 months.
