

Partner Adam Klein Featured in Chicago Tribune Business Profile

October 1, 2013

Adam Klein, head of the Chicago Corporate group and the national Sports and Sports Facilities practice, was recently the focus of a Chicago Tribune Executive Profile on the front page of the paper's business section. The extensive article outlines the evolution of Adam's legal practice, his good working relationship with sports mogul Jerry Reinsdorf and the changing arena of sports law. Adam emphasizes the importance of mentoring, trying to maintain a healthy work/home life and earning respect, even from those on the opposing side of a deal: "I take very seriously that I'm somewhat of an extension of all my clients. Your reputation is what you've got when all is said and done, and the way you conduct yourself matters." ("Lawyer Sports Big-Name Clients," September 30, 2013)
