December 24, 2013

Gil Soffer, managing partner of the Chicago office and national co-head of the White Collar Defense, Internal Investigations and Compliance practice, is profiled in a Chicago Daily Law Bulletin article recapping his career and highlighting his new role as legal analyst for WLS-Channel 7. Gil says there are parallels between working in front of the jury and the television camera, as both require taking "complicated issues and explain[ing] them clearly and briefly." He also notes that Katten's outlook appears bright after the firm weathered the economic downturn well. "We are able to handle complicated cases ... economically because we do it leanly ... meaning we are careful about how we staff our cases."
