

Katten Represents Cymetrix in Acquisition by Navigant Consulting

May 15, 2014

Katten represented Cymetrix Corp., a leader in providing customized revenue cycle solutions to hospitals and healthcare networks, in its acquisition by Navigant Consulting Inc. Under the terms of the deal, Chicago-based Navigant paid $75 million in cash to shareholders of Cymetrix for the entirety of the company's equity. Navigant will pay up to an additional $25 million based on how well Cymetrix meets certain performance benchmarks. The company has been renamed Navigant Healthcare Cymetrix. Los Angeles Corporate head Stephen Antion led the team that represented Cymetrix in this transaction, which included Corporate associates Philip Lang, Logan Dolph and Jenna Pisarev with significant assistance from Tax Planning partner Jill Darrow, Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation partner Daniel Lange, Intellectual Property partner Doron Goldstein and Real Estate special counsel Peter Ballance.
