

Katten Obtains Dismissal for Relativity Media in Defamation Suit

May 16, 2014

A New Jersey federal judge has dismissed a defamation suit against Relativity Media LLC and other producers of the film Out of the Furnace. Plaintiffs—members of a Native American ethnic group—alleged the film portrayed them in a negative light. Judge William H. Walls dismissed the case, ruling that the movie, a purely fictional film, did not portray any specific individual plaintiffs or make any factual assertions about them, and, thus, plaintiffs could not meet the "of and concerning" requirement for stating a claim. Partner Joel Weiner represented Relativity Media in the case. ("Christian Bale Film Didn't Defame Tribe Members, Judge Says," May 15, 2014)
