

Partner Brian Sodikoff Profiled in DePaul Journal of Health Care Law

June 24, 2014

Brian Sodikoff, a partner in the Intellectual Property practice, was interviewed for the "DePaul Law Alumni Spotlight" in the June 16, 2014, issue of the DePaul Journal of Health Care Law. The 2003 DePaul graduate discussed the key skills he has learned during his career, what has surprised him about litigation, and his impressions of Chicago's young entrepreneurs and their contributions to the health care field. Brian also shared his excitement about future health care developments, suggesting that the combination of new entrepreneurs with Chicago's strong base of hospitals, pharmaceutical companies, and the medical and information technology industries will establish Chicago as a new hub for medical innovation.
