

Josh Rubenstein, Head of the Private Wealth Practice, Named One of "Most-Connected New Yorkers" by Crain's New York Business

June 25, 2014

Josh Rubenstein, head of the Private Wealth practice, has been named to the inaugural Crain's New York Business list of the "Most-Connected New Yorkers." The data-driven list identifies leaders of for-profit and nonprofit institutions in the region based on quality of relationships in and outside of the business world, the influence and credibility of the people and organizations they're connected to, and where they sit within and relative to their circles. The connected persons are ranked based on reach, reliability, influence, access and centrality.
