

Associate David Kelly Profiled on Wall Street Journal Law Blog

December 20, 2010

David Kelly, a Chicago-based associate in the firm's Corporate Practice, was featured in an article on the Wall Street Journal Law Blog. Mr. Kelly, whose practice focuses on transactional matters, has also been recording music on his own label for more than a decade, and his new solo album was named one of the top 2010 indie Chicago albums by the Chicago Tribune. Tribune music critic Greg Kot calls PolyMath, recorded under Mr. Kelly's MC name, "Cap D," "a landmark release from one of the best MC's this city has produced." Mr. Kelly joined the firm in 2004, after serving as a summer associate in 2003. ("David Kelly: Katten Lawyer by Day, Acclaimed Hip-Hop Artist by Night," December 17, 2010)

Mr. Kelly was also profiled in a New York Times article discussing both his hip-hop and legal careers. ("A One-Man Blend of Hip-Hop Artist, Provocateur and, No Joke, Lawyer," January 6, 2011)
