

Partner David Allen Interviewed by Forbes on Estate Planning for Middle-Market Business Owners

March 16, 2015

David Allen, a partner in the Trusts and Estates practice, spoke with Forbes regarding the importance of estate planning for middle-market business owners. David outlined current federal and state estate tax laws and provided a number of potential estate planning solutions that could help a business owner vastly reduce taxes, transfer business interests to family members, receive liquidity, retain control of the business and even benefit charity.
