

Washington Office Move Makes the News

July 21, 2008

Katten's recent move to a new state-of-the-art office space in Washington, D.C. was featured in AmLaw Daily, The Blog of the Legal Times and Legal Bisnow. The articles focus on the firm's need for more space for its growing practice in the nation's capitol. Managing Partner Roger Furey comments, "We were looking for a building that could give us more in terms of meeting our needs with respect to top technology to better serve our clients." ("Katten Muchin Rosenman Moves Into New Georgetown Office Today," The Blog of the Legal Times, July 21, 2008)
