Joshua Rubenstein Quoted in The Washington Post on David Bowie's Estate

January 18, 2016

National head of the firm's Private Wealth practice, Joshua Rubenstein, was quoted in The Washington Post on the role that David Bowie's estate has in making the most out of the interest in his music. Josh stated, "Musical tastes change so quickly, you don't want to wait too long until you've missed your opportunity. There are people like Elvis, who are unique, because the interest never dies. Whether Bowie is unique waits to be seen." ("How Death Brought David Bowie a Career Breakthrough," January 18, 2016)
