CFTC No-Action Reinstates Broad Registration Exemption for Institutional CPOs, Pending Further Action

By Christian Hennion

On December 19, the Staff of the CFTC's Markets Participant Division published a new no-action letter – CFTC Staff Letter 25-50 – which creates an exemption from commodity pool operator (CPO) registration for operators of privately-offered pools owned solely by "qualified eligible persons" (QEPs), as defined in CFTC rules. In particular, this exemption is available to CPOs registered as investment advisers with the SEC with respect to qualifying commodity pools reported in the adviser's Form PF filings. Read about the registration exemption.

SEC Clears Path for Tokenized Securities

By Wayne Aaron, Michael Didiuk, James Brady, Adam Bolter, Alex Kim, Nicholas Gervasi

In a flurry of activity, the SEC has taken decisive steps to integrate blockchain technology into traditional securities market infrastructure. First, in a media appearance, Chairman Paul Atkins publicly championed tokenization as the future of market modernization. Days later, the SEC's Division of Trading and Markets issued a no-action letter allowing the Depository Trust Company to launch a pilot program for tokenized securities. The SEC also opened proceedings on Nasdaq's proposal to trade tokenized stocks. Read about tokenized securities.
