Katten Represents TriSpan in Growth Investment

(LONDON) Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP (Katten) announced that it represented TriSpan, a global private equity firm, on the significant strategic growth investment in Real Good Dental (RGD), a leading Scottish group of dental practices, with the backing of Keyhaven Capital.

RGD has grown through acquisitions, creating the second largest dental group in Scotland. In 2018, RGD joined forces with aesthetics company, Westerwood Health, and now operates practices around Scotland's "central belt" covering approximately 85 percent of its population.

A Katten team led by Corporate and Private Equity partner Paul Rosen advised on the transaction. Rosen was supported by associates David Wood and Alex Taylor. The Katten team included banking partner Peter Englund and associate Victoria Sinton; Transactional Tax Planning partner Charlotte Sallabank, and additional lawyers from London's Employment, Real Estate, IP and commercial groups.

Brodies LLP supported Katten on aspects regarding Scottish real estate elements of the deal.

Commenting on the transaction, Rosen said:

"This is an exciting time for RGD as it starts its next phase of growth partnering with the expertise of TriSpan. This is the latest in a series of investments which we have assisted TriSpan with. We are delighted to have done so again here, building upon our deep relationship with the TriSpan team."
