Eva Dickerman focuses on transactional entertainment matters, advising clients on various aspects of the development, production, financing, acquisition, distribution, marketing and exploitation of motion pictures, television programming and other entertainment properties. Eva also counsels clients with respect to intellectual property matters including copyright, rights of publicity, and privacy and trademark.

Prior to joining Katten, Eva was associated with Latham & Watkins where her practice included mergers & acquisitions and general corporate matters.

Before attending law school, Eva worked at AMC Networks in business affairs.
