Katten London Boosts Real Estate Practice With Addition of Terry Green and Michael Speranza

(LONDON) Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP today announced the arrival of Terry Green and Michael Speranza as partner and of counsel, respectively, in the firm's Real Estate practice.

"Real estate continues to be an essential part of Katten's growth in the UK," said Katten Chairman Vincent A.F. Sergi. "The real estate expertise that both Terry and Michael bring will prove to be an important part of our overall practice and an asset to our clients' business objectives."

Terry focuses on finance, hospitality, insolvency and corporate real estate including retail. He advises a wide range of clients from banks to asset management companies and hotel groups.

Michael brings many years of experience in real estate finance, commercial real estate, development, funds, structured finance, corporate trustees and restructuring. His clients include banks, property development and investment companies, and public sector bodies. Michael assists both lenders and borrowers to finance large and sometimes landmark London properties and with the restructuring of banking facilities.

"Terry and Michael will enhance the growing sophisticated Real Estate practice Katten has in London," said Peter Sugden, managing partner of Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP. "We look forward to leveraging their industry-focused experience for our clients in the UK and around the world."

Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP is the London affiliate of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, a full-service law firm with approximately 650 attorneys in US locations including Chicago, New York, Washington, DC, Los Angeles and Charlotte, and an office in Shanghai. Katten's UK office focuses on all aspects of corporate and real estate transactions and financial services. For more information, visit www.kattenlaw.co.uk.
