Katten Attorneys Named to 2023 Southern California Super Lawyers Rising Stars List

(LOS ANGELES) Katten announced today that three of the firm's attorneys have been selected to the 2023 Southern California Rising Stars list. Named to the list were Litigation counsel Megan Maczek, Private Wealth associate Avi Pariser, and Litigation associate Paul S. Yong.

Maczek represents landlords, banks, technology companies and employers in commercial litigation in state and federal court in class, mass and individual actions. Pariser leverages his probate experience to assist high-net-worth individuals and their families with the preparation and administration of estate plans. Yong is an experienced and skilled securities litigator who regularly defends public companies and their directors and officers in securities class actions, shareholder derivative actions, and government and internal investigations.

Super Lawyers is a rating service that selects outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations. Rising Stars candidates must be either 40 years old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less.

Katten is a full-service law firm with approximately 700 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm's core areas of practice include corporate, financial markets and funds, insolvency and restructuring, intellectual property, litigation, real estate, structured finance and securitization, transactional tax planning, private credit and private wealth. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals. For more information, visit katten.com.
