Marisa Murillo, special counsel in Katten's Commercial Finance practice, represents lenders and borrowers in a wide range of secured and unsecured financings. She concentrates in first- and second-lien financings, asset-based loans, secured acquisition and other leveraged financings, debt restructurings and intercreditor issues. Marisa also has substantial experience in representing automotive clients in complex finance transactions and other general corporate and merger and acquisition matters.

Prior to joining Katten, Marisa was an associate in the debt finance group at Kirkland & Ellis LLP and an in-house corporate transactions attorney at General Motors Company.
